I am a member of Chapman Law Firm's Alternative Dispute Resolution Group. My goal as a mediator is to provide a unique perspective to clients interested in the mediation process as a non-attorney mediator. My approach to dispute resolution combines my years of litigation experience with the perspective of that of a non-attorney. I focus my mediation practice in the resolution of civil litigation disputes, including, but not limited to, breach of contract, homeowner association mediation, boundary disputes, neighborhood disputes, landlord-tenant, asset valuation and complex civil litigation.
