A Reference Guide for Notices Pertaining to Common-Interest Communities

NRS 116.31068 – Except as otherwise specified in bold below, an association shall deliver any notice required to be given by the association to any mailing or email address a unit's owner designates. If a unit's owner has not designated an address, the association may deliver notices by hand delivery or any other method reasonably calculated to provide notice to the unit's owner. The ineffectiveness of a good faith effort to deliver notice by an authorized means does not invalidate action taken.

| INTERRUPTION OF UTILITIES  | NRS 116.345(4)&NRS 704 | At least 10 days before the association interrupts any utility service  | safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community.  If an association decides to interrupt utility services for the nonpayment of utility charges when due, it shall in every case send a written notice of its intent to interrupt any utility service to the unit's owner or the tenant of the unit's owner at least 10 days before interruption. Other applicable statutes and local ordinances may apply.  |
| FINE SCHEDULE  | NRS 116.31031(3)               | Promptly, onceadopted, and beforeany fines can beimposed  | If the association adopts a policy imposing fines for any violations of the governing documents of the association, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall prepare and cause to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner, a schedule of the fines that may be imposed for those violations. The fine schedule should also then be included in any resale packages.   |
| VIOLATION NOTICE   | NRS 116.31031(4)               | Within a reasonable time after discovery of the alleged violation and providing enough time to prepare for a hearing  | The executive board may not impose a fine unless the person against whom the fine will be imposed has been provided with written notice specifying in detail: the alleged violation; the proposed action to cure the alleged violation; the amount of the fine; the date, time and location for a hearing on the alleged violation; and a clear and detailed photograph of the alleged violation when possible. A unit's owner shall not be deemed to have received written notice unless it is mailed to the address of the unit and, if different, to a mailing address specified by the unit's owner.  |
| ABATEMENT – SINGLEFAMILY DWELLING  | NRS 116.310312                 | Prior to abating, the association must mail a notice of its intent to maintain the exterior of the unit or abate a public nuisance by certified mail to each holder of a recorded security interest in the unit | After discovery of the alleged violation, the association must provide a unit's owner with notice and an opportunity for a hearing in the manner provided in NRS 116.31031 (see above). After a hearing, the association may, whether or not a unit is vacant, take any of the following actions if the unit's owner refuses or fails to: maintain the exterior of the unit in accordance with the standards set forth in the governing documents; remove or abate a public nuisance on the exterior of the unit which is visible from any common area of the community or public streets and threatens the health or safety of the residents of the common-interest community, results in blighting or deterioration of the unit or surrounding area AND adversely affects the use and enjoyment of nearby units.                              |
| ABATEMENT IN A BUILDING THAT CONTAINS UNITS DIVIDED BY HORIZONTAL BOUNDARIES DESCRIBED IN THE DECLARATION, OR VERTICAL BOUNDARIES THAT COMPRISE COMMON WALLS BETWEEN UNITS | NRS 116.310312(4)              | After discovery of an alleged violation, the association must provide a unit's owner with notice and an opportunity for a hearing pursuant to NRS 116.31031 (above).  | If the unit is vacant, and the unit's owner refuses or fails to abate a water or sewage leak, the association, including its employees, agents and community manager, may enter the grounds AND interior of the unit to abate the water or sewage leak and remove any water or sewage from the unit that is causing damage, or may cause damage to the common elements or another unit. The association may remove any furniture, fixtures, appliances and components of the unit, including, without limitation, flooring, baseboards and drywall, that were damaged as a result of water or mold because such damage threatens the health or safety of the residents of the common-interest community, results in blighting or deterioration of the unit or the surrounding area and adversely affects the use and enjoyment of nearby units. |
