NEVADA COMMISSION OF COMMON INTEREST COMMUNITIES AND CONDOMINIUM HOTELS

MOTION TO QUASH SERVICE AND VACATE (SET ASIDE) DEFAULT JUDGMENT
NOW COMES the above Respondent and requests the Commission for Common Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels to Quash Service and Vacate (set aside) Default Judgment entered on June 30, 2017 against Respondent in regards to the above captioned matter(s). This Motion to Quash Service and Vacate (set aside) Default Judgment is based upon the following:

Respondent did not receive any notice of hearing.

Respondent only learned of hearing and subsequent order on July 7, 2017 when a television reporter contacted Respondent for a comment through Facebook.

Respondent respectfully requests review of jurisdiction of NRED to file complaint and/or conduct a hearing as NRED opened these complaints by stating Respondent has engaged in management of communities after surrendering CAM certificate in or around September 22, 2015. Respondent strongly states that Respondent has not, at any time, engaged in CAM duties of any sort after such surrender of certificate and full compliance of settlement requirements.
