Re: Cert. No: 7012 1010 0000 1165 9936

Dear Ms. Thompson,

I recently applied for a Nevada Real Estate Sales Person License and was denied due to an arrest in 2012 for a felony charge of sales of a controlled substance. As you may well know, I was forthcoming in my original application about said conviction and was on probation at the time of my application. Subsequently, I have been released from probation as I have proved to be a valuable member of society, including work at a local real estate office in both a clerical position as well as an apprentice to their resident property manager. Though my mistake was in no doubt both legitimate and surely unnerving to the Division, it was a one-time mistake that shall never be repeated. Both the legal system and I are in agreement that this matter has been reconciled. I sincerely hope that you will view this situation similarly.

At this time, I would greatly appreciate your consideration in accepting my appeal to your original decision. I desire nothing more than to pursue with honesty and integrity a career in real estate and truly believe that I will be a valuable asset to the Division.

I thank you greatly for your consideration. At your earliest convenience, please notify me of the next available hearing date at which I may address you and explain both my past circumstance and my overwhelming desire to continue in the real estate business. Likewise, if there are other steps that I may take or if there is any information you need in order for you to grant me my license, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Once again, thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Steven Lewis

Dear Ms. Thompson,

My name is Jacob Moulton. Mr. Steven Lewis sent me a letter and has asked that I send it for him on his behalf since he is, in all honesty, abroad in Nepal helping rebuild a school that was demolished in the earthquake. His correspondence has been sparse at best and I was unclear of the date of postmark. I believe that it was to be postmarked by September 27th, 2015. Unfortunately, today, the 27th is a Sunday, and I have just only received his letter. Please forgive my tardiness in getting this to you, as it was my fault alone. As you can see, I sent this letter first thing Monday morning, the 28th via certified mail. I hope that this in no way effects your decision. If you happen to have any questions for me, I am happy to answer them at any time. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jacob Moulton

Re: Real Estate License Application

Cert. No.: 7012 1010 0000 1165 9936

Dear Mr. Lewis:

The Nevada Real Estate Division has reviewed your application for a real estate salesperson's license. You do not meet the requirements for issuance of a real estate license based on your disclosed felony conviction for drug trafficking. You are currently on probation for that conviction. NRS 645.330 mandates the denial of a license and that no license be issued until three years following completion of probation.

After careful consideration, it is the determination of the Division to deny your application for a real estate salesperson's license. The denial of your application is pursuant to NRS 645.330.

"1. Except as otherwise provided by specific statute, the division may approve an application for a license for a person who meets all the following requirements:

(a) Has a good reputation for honesty, trustworthiness and integrity and who offers proof of those qualifications satisfactory to the division."

2. The Division:

(a) May deny a license to any person who has been convicted of, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud, engaging in a real estate business without a license, possessing for the purpose of sale any controlled substance or any crime involving moral turpitude, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or elsewhere; and

(b) Shall not issue a license to such a person until at least 3 years after:

(1) The person pays any fine or restitution ordered by the court; or

(2) The expiration of the period of the person's parole, probation or sentence,

whichever is later."

You have the right to request, in writing, an appeal of this decision within 30 days of receiving this letter per NRS 645.440(2) and NAC 645.095(3). Please be advised that at an appeal hearing, the Real Estate Commission will review your entire licensing record and may question you thereon. Pursuant to NAC 645.095(4) fees for the application are not refundable.

If you wish to appeal this decision, please mail your request to the Real Estate Division to the attention of:

CIVIL APPLICANT WAIVER

NOTICE OF NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose you have certain rights which are discussed below.

1. You must be notified by (enter name of submitting agency) Nevada Real Estate Division (NRED) that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI and the State of Nevada.
2. If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the job, license or other benefit for which you are applying must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record. You may review and challenge the accuracy of any and all criminal history records which are returned to the submitting agency. The proper forms and procedures will be furnished to you by the Nevada Department of Public Safety, Records Bureau upon request. If you decide to challenge that accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations Section 16.34 provides for the proper procedure to do so:
16.34 – Procedure to obtain change, correction or updating of identification records.
If, after reviewing his/her identification record, the subject thereof believes that it is incorrect or incomplete in any respect and wishes changes, corrections or updating of the alleged deficiency, he/she should make application directly to the agency which contributed the questioned information. The subject of a record may also direct his/her challenge as to the accuracy or completeness of any entry on his/her record to the FBI, Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, ATTN: SCU, Mod. D-2, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, WV 26306. The FBI will then forward the challenge to the agency which submitted the data requesting that agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon the receipt of an official communication directly from the agency which contributed the original information, the FBI CJIS Division will make any changes necessary in accordance with the information supplied by that agency.
3. Based on 28CFR § 50.12 (b), officials making such determinations should not deny the license or employment based on information in the record until the applicant has been afforded a reasonable time to correct or complete the record or has declined to do so.
4. You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the fingerprint-based criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal or state statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.
5. I hereby authorize (enter name of the requesting agency) Nevada Real Estate Division (NRED), to submit a set of my fingerprints to the Nevada Department of Public Safety, Records Bureau for the purpose of accessing and reviewing State of Nevada and FBI criminal history records that may pertain to me.
In giving this authorization, I expressly understand that the records may include information pertaining to notations of arrest, detentions, indictments, information or other charges for which the final court disposition is pending or is unknown to the above referenced agency. For records containing final court disposition information, I understand that the release may include information pertaining to dismissals, acquittals, convictions, sentences, correctional supervision information and information concerning the status of my parole or probation when applicable.

6. I hereby release from liability and promise to hold harmless under any and all causes of legal action, the State of Nevada, its officer(s), agent(s) and/or employee(s) who conducted my criminal history records search and provided information to the submitting agency for any statement(s), omission(s), or infringement(s) upon my current legal rights. I further release and promise to hold harmless and covenant not to sue any persons, firms, institutions or agencies providing such information to the State of Nevada on the basis of their disclosures. I have signed this release voluntarily and of my own free will.

A reproduction of this authorization for release of information by photocopy, facsimile or similar process, shall for all purposes be as valid as the original.

In consideration for processing my application I, the undersigned, whose name and signature voluntarily appears below; do hereby and irrevocably agree to the above.
