

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY
REAL ESTATE DIVISION

realest@red.state.nv.us

www.red.state.nv.us

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Credit for attending Appraisal Commission meetings.

Pursuant to NAC 645C.355 the Commission will grant credit for continuing education, not to exceed 6 hours, to a licensee or holder of a certificate once during each renewal period if the following conditions are met:

1. The licensee was not a participant or otherwise affiliated with a disciplinary hearing conducted by the Commission.
2. The Commission meeting lasted at least 2 hours.
3. The Commission certifies to the attendance of the licensee.

Registered Interns

NAC 645C.068 requires that a registered intern attend at least 6 hours of meetings of the Commission prior to applying for a license or certificate.

To Receive a Certificate of Attendance, an attendee at a Nevada Commission of Appraisers of Real Estate Must:

- Sign in and out at the registration desk.
- Attend at least two hours of the Commission meeting.
- ❖ At all times, direct his or her full and complete attention to the Commission meeting as it is being held.
- ❖ Refrain from engaging in activities which are distracting to other attendees at the meeting, or which otherwise disrupts the orderly conduct of a meeting.
- ❖ Refrain from use of voice pagers, beepers, computers, telephones or other (non-medical) electronic devices.

The Nevada Commission of Appraisers of Real Estate May Deny Awarding a Certificate of Attendance to an attendee of its Commission meetings in the event the attendee:

- ❖ Does not direct his or her attention at all times to the Commission meeting as it is being conducted.
- ❖ Engages in activities which are distracting to other attendees or the Commissioners, or which otherwise disrupts the orderly conduct of a Commission meeting.
- ❖ Uses voice pagers, beepers, computer, telephones or other (non-medical) electronic devices while in attendance at a Commission meeting and as it is being conducted.

Revised: 03/02/09