Real Estate Division Summarily Suspends License of Real Estate Salesperson William Heath, II

Las Vegas – The Real Estate Division has announced that on March 2, 2010, the real estate license of Henderson-based Salesperson William Heath, II, was summarily suspended.

The Real Estate Division, through their investigation and working with the City of Henderson Police Department, determined that substantiating evidence supported that Heath, assisted by an accomplice, pawned jewelry which had been stolen in the course of real estate-related business. The City of Henderson Police Department's investigation resulted in Mr. Heath's arrest.

Heath is prohibited from engaging in any real estate-related sales activities, and the Division will proceed with a Complaint before the Nevada Real Estate Commission.

“Our investigation was based upon corroboration of information by Henderson Police Department of Mr. Heath's alleged involvement in unlawful activities which led to his arrest, so it was imperative that we act quickly to protect the public,” said Real Estate Administrator Gail J. Anderson.
